6. (Secret - JMM) Explained in confidence to Frank Slatinshek, Acting Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, the holddown on briefings regarding Cienfuegos. I said that in fact, so far as I knew, there was very little information to add to what had already appeared in the press. Slatinshek said if I thought that was all there was to it, I was mistaken, and indicated that he had turned up a good deal of information from other sources.

7. (Secret - JMM) Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, said that Senator Henry Jackson was most anxious for an early briefing on the Cienfuegos matter. I said I would have to check with the Director. She indicated she was aware of the holddown.

8. (Confidential - LLM) Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called and said that the galley proofs of the testimony of [REDACTED] are now available and he would appreciate our review for such changes and deletions as we feel are appropriate. I told Sourwine that someone would be by to pick them up.
